

BOHUN/BOON/BOONE FAMILY
ENGLAND TO AMERICA
(My line in Italic's)

The name of Bohun, will be spelled as Boon and Boone most of the time in this history. Earlier generations will be Boon and later ones Boones.

GEORGE BOHUN I born about 1625 England & Ann FALLACE, b. 1615 England. d/o Walter Fallace [SOURCE?], their son;

GEORGE BOHUN II born about 1646 Exeter Devonshire, England, he resided at Bradninch, near Exeter and about 77 miles from London. He was a tanner in England. George Bohun II, died at age 60 years (abt. 1706)[BUR 31 MAY 1696 SO BORN C1636?] in England and his wife's name was Sarah Epply SOURCE? WHY NOT UPPEY?[BUR 05 FEB 1708/9 DIED AGE 80 PER JAMES BOONE SO BORN C1728 UNLESS JB WRONG?] Their issue: (1) George Boon III; (2) Henry Boon; (3) John Boon.

GEORGE BOHUN/BOON III, born 19 Mar 1666 Exeter Stoak (? BAP DATE STOKE CANON PARISH), England, was a member a the Society of Friends, known as Quakers, George was also a weaver and tanner. George Bohun III married in 1689 England to Mary Milton Maugridge, born 1669 [BAP 23 DEC 1668] Brandninch, Devonshire, England, the daughter of John & Mary (Milton) Maugridge. Mary died 2 Feb. 1740. George died 27 Jul 1744, and both are buried at the Friends Burying Ground, Berks Co. Pa.

Between the years of 1711 and 1713, George III sent his children, George IV, Sarah, and Squire to investigate America. George Bohun and his family were members of the Cullompton, Devonshire, Meeting House in England. George Bohun III, and the remaining family arrived in Philadelphia on 10 Oct. 1717 with letter of recommendation to the Society of Friends in America. They first settled in Abington, near Philadelphia where George Boon IV lived, he had married on the 27th of July 1713 Abington, Berks Co., Pa. to Deborah Howell. Later George Bohun III moved to North Wales in Philadelphia Co., Pa. finally in 1720 they moved to Oley Township, Philadelphia Co. (Now Exeter County) They became members of the Gwynedd Monthly Meeting House. The George Bohun home was erected in 1733, and was still standing in 1922. George III and the rest of his family left their home in Bradninch, Devonshire, England on August 17, 1717 traveled to Bristol and sailed to America. They landed at Philadelphia on 29 Sep. 1717 where they were met by their three children who had proceeded them to America. At first they lived in Abington, then moved to North Wales and finally in 1720 settled in Oley Township in Philadelphia County, this is now Exeter Twp. Berks Co. Pa. "Minutes of the Board of Property, Philadelphia, Book-H" Agreed with George Boon Jr. of Abington, for 400 acres of land at Oley, at 14 pounds C't and one shilling sterling quit rent for which a Warrent is granted, signed and dated the 4th. 8ber, 1718.

During this time period, I found on other records a Nicolas Boone, born 1665 or 1678, married to Elizabeth Linsford in Boston, Mass. before the year 1700; A Matthew Boone, born abt. 1664, married Anna _____, in Cambridge, Mass.

George Bohun/Boon I, II, and III are listed in the Salt Lake City, LDS files..births in England.

Other Boone family researchers such as James Douglas Boone, of Fayetteville, West Virginia, January 1926. (Information published in the Fayette County West Virginia History .The early history of the Boones from 1056 to 1777 was furnished by courtesy of B.P. Johnson in his "Makers of America" and from that date to the present time, see the pension papers of John Boone, Revolutionary Soldier, filed in the Bureau of Pensions, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. The remainder of this information was furnished by Henry Boone, grandfather of James Douglas Boone, and William Harrison Boone the father of James Douglas Boone. The line to James Douglas is as follows: George I, II, III, Squire Sr., Israel, John, Henry, William Harrison, James Douglas Boone. (The Boone Family Association was organized in 1925. The object of this accociation is to suitably honor the memory of past generations, to collect and preserve the records of present generations and is a national organization composed of Boone descendants.)

After the battle of Hastings had been won (1066) and William, Duke of Normandy, held England in his grasp, he caused to be prepared a roll containing the names of his devoted comrades in arms who had followed him across the channel to help him conquer England, and also erected near the site of the battle of Hastings; the Battle Abbey, partly in commemoration of his victory and partly as a chantry in honor of his slain knights. The list of noblemen who had ben his companions was written on parchment and put away safely in the Battle Abbey, and to nobles whose names are incribed thereon many families in England and America, and other parts of the world, trace their lineage. One of these nobles was Humphrey de Bohun, who received the manor of Talsford in Norfolk, and was recorded in Domesday Book. His name was drived from two little Norman villages near Carentan, which were called St. Georges and St. Anre-de-Bohun. Although the name Bohun has lasted in its original form in some families until the present time, in others it has been shorted [Anglicized] to Boone.

In 1365 Humphrey de Bohun, who was the sixth Earl of Hereford became Knight of the Garter, and was also granted a coat-of-arms. George Boone III, the 4th great grandfather of James Douglas Boone of Fayetteville, W.Va., came from Brandninch, Devonshire, England to Philadelphia. After George III settled in Berks County Pa., he also bought land in Maryland and Virginia, and there is a tradition that he once owned much of the land which later stood the town of Georgetown, Maryland, which was later incorporated into the District of Columbia, and is now one of the oldest portions of the Capital city. [John, Peter, Thomas and William Boone were among the early settlers of Maryland, arriving between 1662 and 1671 and a Thomas Boone died in Kent County, Maryland, before 27 May 1685, leaving land; George, Giles, James,

Margaret, Mary, Thomas, William and Xtopher Boone appear as headrights in Virginia during 1642-1666. I have doubts that George III speculated in land in MD or VA.]

Josiah Boone, s/o George IV & Deborah Howell Boon, served in the American Revolution. The Virginia State Records list Virginia State Militia: Josiah Boone, guard duty at the Salt Works under Captain Samuel Kirkham in 1782 and on 22 Oct. 1782 as a member of an expedition against the enemy Indians under General Clark. He served 32 days. Sarah Rockenfield, in her book, "Our Boon Family" states: "I have Josiah Boone, Sr.'s Rev. War. service papers in this book". It states: "Josiah Boone, Sr. was in the Lincoln Militia as Guard serving under Capt. Samuel Kirkman, Va. troops, and Col. Daniel Boone" (who was a first cousin to Josiah Boone Sr.). Josiah Boone married Hannah HENTON, on 30 Jun. 1750 at St. Gabriels Episcopal Church in Moriatton (now Douglassville), Amity Twp. Berks Co. Pa. Hannah was born in 1729 Exeter Twp. Berks Co. Pa. Her parents were Persis Boone (sister of George Boon IV) and George H. Henton. In the minutes of the Exeter Meetings, on 30 May 1750, Josiah Boon was condemned for "disorderly marriage." He was condemned for not marrying a Quaker. Hannah and Josiah Boone were the parents of three children: (1) George Boone, b. 1751 Berks Co. Pa. never married, he moved to Kentucky with the Boone family as he sold his farm in Woodford County, Kentucky in 1828 to Elijah Pepper. (2) Noan Boone, b. Pa. died young. They moved on to several places in Virginia: Rockingham Co., Augusta Co. and Culpepper Co. They went with Daniel Boone to what is now Kentucky when he took settlers there and settled in Fort Boonesborough, Ky. Josiah's grand daughter, daughter of Josiah Boone Jr. was born at the Fort. After the Rev. War. Josiah and

Hannah Boone moved to Woodford Co. Ky. where he died in 1814. He was buried at Glen Creek Baptist Cemetery, which is nine miles south of Frankfort, Ky. Josiah and Hannah Hite Boone were the parents of six children: (1) Jeremiah Boone, b. Pa. 29 Feb 1760, m. Jouce "Joicy" NEVILLE on 8 May 1787 Standford, Lincoln Co. Ky. Jeremiah died 10 Jun 1832 Lawrence Co. In. and is buried there. (2) Ruth Boone, b. Pa. 1769, and is a twin to Deborah Boone. She married Pluright SISK on 1 May, 1790. Josiah Boone Jr. b. 1758 Berks Co Pa. died in 1822 Shelby Co. Ky. He married his first cousin Persis HENTON, d/o Thomas & Ann YARNALL Henton. Some discussion in various records as to the children of Josiah & Persis Boone. The Kentucky Historical Society in Vol. 13 No. 3 July 1971 on pg. 24 states: "The facts do indicate that Josiah Jr. had a son, Josiah III and probably George & Edward Boone were his sons. Only the last two are named in the estate of Josiah Boone Jr." A 1973 copy of the Boone Pioneer Echoes lists among children of Josiah Jr. George and Edward. The April 1985 Boone Pioneer Echoes Vol. 27, No. 2 pg. 142 states: "Josiah Boone III of Sullivan Co. Indiana, son of Josiah Jr. & Persis Henton Boone, married 31 Jul. 1813 in Shelby Co. Ky., to Elizabeth Nancy CREWS, d/o Jeremiah Crews. Includes child #3. Christopher Boone, b. 9 May 1818 Ky. and married his first cousin, Elizabeth BOONE, d/o George Boone, s/o Josiah Jr. & Elizabeth McCammon Boone of Sullivan Co. In. and child #4. Eliza Ann Boone, b. 4 Jul 1819 Ky, d. 1846. Eliza married Benjamin McCAMMON and left a little girl, Elizabeth McCammon aged 2 years." Stephen Tuttle wrote that Elizabeth Nancy Crews, w/o Josiah Boone III was born in Madison Co Ky. about 1792, and was the daughter of Jeremiah & Elizabeth (HARLAN) Crews. Josiah Boone Jr. probably had sons in Shelby Co. Ky.- where there are several marriages of unidentified George Boones. Josiah and Percis Henton Boone were the parents of two sons and six daughters:[George, Josiah Boone III Persis, Leah, Anne Yarnell, Hannah, Deborah, Ruth.]

After the death of Persis, Josiah m/2 Mrs. Ellenor Bryon ADAMS. Elenor was a sister of Rebecca Bryan Boon, w/o Daniel. Josiah Boone, Jr. & Ellenor were the parents of two daughters; (1) Tabitha Boone, b. 1815, d. 1881, m. Geroge HORSEMAN. (2) Charity Boone, m. Rev. William McEWAN.

He was a large man, nearly seven feet tall and was often ridiculed for his large feet. However, he was very popular and was elected to public office many times. He was elected Justice of the Peace in Sullivan Co. in 1817; Sheriff 1821-25; Member of the Indiana House 1826-27; and several other offices. Information on Josiah Boone family by Nancy Boone, w/o Allen Boone a direct descendant.

SARAH BOON, b. 18 Feb 1691 Bradninch, Devonshire, Eng. d/o George III & Mary Boon. Married Jacob Stover on 15 Mar. 1715. She died before 1744.

SQUIRE BOON SR., b. 25 Nov 1696 (Original date 6 Dec 1696), Bradninch, Devonshire, England. died 2 Jan. 1765 Rowan Co. North Carolina, m igrated there 1750/52. He married on 23 Sep 1720 Berks Co. Pa. to Sarah Morgan, b. 1700 Gwynedd, Pa. d/o Edward & Sarah Morgan, Sarah died 1777 and both she and Squire are buried at the Joppa Cemetery Mocksville, Davie Co., North Carolina. This resercher has a picture of Squire's headstone. Squire lived in Winchester, Va. for a few years after leaving Pa., he mirgated to North Carolina in 1750/52, and settled on the Yadkin River, in 1750. Squire emigrated from England between 1711-1713. His occupation was a weaver. Sarah Morgan's parents were early settlers of the Welsh Colony of Gwynedd Pa. "Squire, a strong wiry man of small stature, red hair, grey eyes." Squire Boon, was the Justice of the Peace for Rowan County, North Carolina. Boone in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, from Two Centuries of Brothersvalley [Spelling?] pg 206-216. Squire Boon (Father of Daniel and our Israel Boon) was married to Sarah Morgan, a Welsh member of the Society of Friends (Quakers), daughter of John [John?] Edward Morgan, July 23, 1720. Their sons Daniel was born November 2, 1734, and Squire, Jr. born five in the morning in Philadelphia, Oct. 5, 1744.

The Dunkers had moved all around them in Berks County and had a great influence upon this famiy. The Mother of Daniel and his brothers and sisters joined the Dunker Society. In 1748 she and her husband Squire Sr. and their son, Israel (our 5th great grandfather) were "disowned" by the Friends. Dr. Floyd Mallott historian of the Church of the Brethren and Professor of Church History, Bethany Biblical Seminary, Chicago, says, "The Boone family from Berks County, Penn. The father, a Quaker, married a Pennsylvania Dutch woman of Brethren affiliation. [Which father? Sarah Morgan Boone's father was a Welsh Quaker! Could he be confusing Squire, Sr. with Jr.? Maybe Jane Van Cleve was Pennsylvania Dutch?] Nine children, of whom Daniel is best known, came to the home. The majority of the children grew up to be Dunkers, among them Daniel, so tradition says, although no record of the baptisms extant. Two of the sons became Dunker preachers; George, elected in Stony Creek Church, Somerset Co. Pa., 1770 Squire Jr. was elected in North Carolina under the leadership of Elder John Hendricks. Squire Jr. later preached in Kentucky at the old Calvinist Baptist Church. George built a Dunker church near Corydon, Kentucky in 1819. George became an eccentric and lived out his last days as a hermit in a cave near the Ohio River, over on the Indiana side.(George Boon died in Ind. 1819.) [Which George? Squire, Jr., who died in Indiana in 1815 and was buried in a cave, had no son George, all according to Spraker.] Before leaving Berks Co. Pa. for North Carolina the Boones became acquainted with Elder George Adam Martin and Conrad Beissel, two outstanding preachers and elders of the German Baptist church. (Note Conrad Beissell married Barbara Cable, the daughter of our ancestor Phillip & Maria (Brady) Cable. (This is ancestors on Dad's side, Boon's are on Mom's side) Some of the Cable families went to Stony Creek with the Boone, and Elder Martin when he organized a church in 1762.) Because the mother was the first to join the Dunker Church, and Israel and Sarah married out of the Church, the Friends Meeting banned or disowned all members of the Boon family. [This Dunker connection is interesting because my wife's maternal great-grandparents were Moses Cranor, a Quaker, and Barbara Brunk, a Dunker (Dunkards; German Baptist Brethren.)]

John had a land grant, Greenbrier Co. Va. in 1794 at the mouth of Howard's Creek, where it joins the Greenbrier River, served in the continental Army 1778-York Penn., under Capt. Sprangler, Gen. Gates with Md. & Del. troops, lived in Henry Co. Va. after Army service. John could not read or write. State of Virginia, Monroe Co. On this 20th day of August 1833 personally appeared before the County court of Monroe now setting, JOHN BOON, a resident in said County of Monroe and State of Virginia (Now West Va.) aged 78 years of age, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision said by the act of Congress passed June 7th. 1832, that he enlisted in the army of the United States in the Year 1777, under Captain Spangler in the County of York and State of Pennsylvania for five years, the names of his other officers and the Regiment to which he belonged he has forgotten, but knows that he served upwards of two years, and then was marched under the Command of General Gates, in Company with the Maryland and Delaware troops to Hillsborough in North Carolina, and from that place they proceeded to join the troops under the command of Baron DeKalb. He well recollects that the army suffered much fatigue and hardship marching towards where the enemy were encamped. They had to cut a road for many miles from Santee River towards Camden at night encountered a party of the British, and halted. The next morning the two armies met and fought, but the enemy prevailed and General Gates and his army were defeated and dispersed. He was in that battle and was among the last to retreat. He saved himself from the pursuing enemy by fleeing through an unknown Country as well as his fatigue and previous hardships would allow, at length he arrived at the Washington Ironworks in Henry County where he remained some years and then came to the County of Monroe which was then Greenbrair, where he has resided ever since that time and does now reside.

After this dreadful defeat, the Officers and soldiers with whom he served had all fled in different directions and he knew not where to find them so as to get a discharge. consequently, he did not get a discharge. He served from the commencement of his service or enlistment until this defeat the full length and time of three years. This battle took place as well as he now recollects in the month of August 1780. He was born in York County, Pennsylvania within about eight miles of the town of York, but in what year, he does not recollect, but he knows that he was eighteen or nineteen years old when he went with his uncle DANIEL BOON to Kentucky, and he knows that he returned the next year to York which was 1774. He relinquishes every claim to a Pension or annuity whatever except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency in any State. Sworn to and subscribed
