William "Billy" Wade was a son of Royal Wade and Rachel Jones, who came to Kentucky from Franklin County, Virginia, about 1792. Louisa Crook Johnson was a daughter of Jones Johnson and Mary "Polly" Crook. (Wade family Bible in the possession of Dorothy Ellis Hedges, Bagdad, KY, transcribed by Ronald Harrod, Bagdad, 1976.)

The Wade Bible is an Alexander's Stereotype Edition, published by C. Alexander and Company, Athenian Building, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1834. It was described by Ronald Harrod, another Wade descendant, as "very old & rotten and moths have eaten part of it." It measured about 12 by 8 inches. The front cover was missing and the back cover was "very stiff" leather. Some of the pages appeared to be missing, from when Harrod saw it some fifteen years earlier, while it was in the possession of Ruth Duncan Ellis. It has not been determined to whom it originally belonged, who made the entries or how it descended to Ruth Duncan Ellis, who gave it to her daughter Dorothy Ellis Hedges, but it is reasonable to assume that Ruth received it from her mother Martha Wade Duncan. The Bible also contained a loose-leaf birth record for the family of Jones Johnson and Polly Crook. While residing in New York City and visiting Bagdad, soon after receiving the transcript of the Bible entries from Ronald Harrod in 1976, the compiler telephoned Mrs. Hedges for permission to see and photograph the Bible. She reluctantly agreed, but when he arrived at her home, shortly after calling, she did not answer the door, apparently, as has been stated by other relatives in the Bagdad area, uneasy about admitting strangers into her house and a jealous guardian of the Bible. Most of the upper third of the family record page, containing the family of Royal Wade and Rachel Jones, is missing because of a diagonal tear that carried away the names of the first four entries which probably included the parents, since the first remaining notation is the day and year of the birth of their first child Mary Wade in 1794:

Marriages

Mary Edna Wade and William S. Scrogins married Jan. 25, 1866

G. F. Duncan and R. J. Wade was married Apr. 9, 1868

Martha Ellen Wade & W. D. Duncan were united by Thomas Daniel at William Scrogins on this 18th day of Sep. 1877 in presence of James R. Duncan and G. F. Duncan

The birth entry for Martha Ellen Wade was copied erroneously as Mary Ellen in the Harrod transcript, which Ronald later verified.

Ronald Harrod described the Johnson family record as a very old and fancy paper, not part of the Bible, but in it. He misread the name Jones Johnson as James Johnson and the middle initial of William Logan Johnson as J., but they are given correctly here for clarity:

According to her marriage license, the parents of Mary Edna Wade were born in Shelby County, Kentucky. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 9, page 3168.)

The marriage of William Wade and Louisa Crook Johnson took place in Franklin

County, Kentucky, probably at the home of her parents. Mary Crook Johnson, widow of Jones Johnson, resided in Franklin County, Kentucky, on 13 February 1845, when she and her children, including William and Louisa Wade, sold two tracts of land in Shelby County, Kentucky. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Deed Book O2, pages 116-118.) The ceremony was performed by Abraham Cook, minister of Indian Fork Baptist Church, which is in Shelby County, not far from the Franklin County line. Abraham Cook was related to the Scroggins family through the Bohannon family. The record seems to identify both parties as residents of Franklin County, but the Wade family lived in Shelby County: (Franklin County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 2, page30.)

I do certify that I did, on the 24th day of October, 1844, celebrate the rites of matrimony between William Wade and Louisa C. Johnson of this County, agreeably to the rules of the church to which I belong. Witness my hand this 24 day of October, 1844

William and Louisa Johnson Wade were residents of Shelby County in 1850, when her mother, two brothers and a sister lived with them: (Federal Census Microcopy 432, Roll 218, Shelby County District 1, dwelling 916, family 916.)

E. Johnson probably was Elizabeth Johnson Carr, widow of Preston Carr, who was described unclearly to the enumerator as a daughter of Mary Crook Johnson and mistakenly entered by her maiden name. However, Elizabeth Johnson Carr was only 35 in 1850. Elizabeth J. Johnson and Preston Carr obtained a marriage license, with the consent of her father Jones Johnson, on 20 March 1835 and were married by Abraham Cook on 21 March 1839. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 5A, page 727.) Preston Carr apparently died before 13 February 1845, since he did not participate in the deed by which the heirs of Jones Johnson, including Elizabeth Carr, sold his land. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Deed Book O2, pages 116-118.) Elizabeth Carr, widow of Preston Carr, was married to John Miles on 23 July 1855, by Thomas M. Daniel, with William Wade and Anderson Wade as witnesses. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 8, page 2374.)

Royal Wade and Anderson Wade, father and brother of William Wade, were enumerated together, next to William, in 1850: (dwelling 917, family 917.)

Margaret Wade was an unmarried daughter of Royal Wade who later married Samuel Miles on 13 November 1863. Aged 56, it was her first marriage and, aged 67, it was his third. She was born in Kentucky and her father was born in Virginia.(Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 6, page 1651.) By his first wife America Cheatham, Anderson Wade had a son Obediah Wade. By his second wife Polly Anne Johnson, who was a sister of Louisa Johnson Wade, he had a daughter Isabella "Belle" Wade and, after 1850, a son Fountain Wade. Anderson and Polly were married by Abraham Cook on 01 September 1847, with James A. Wade, a son of Royal Wade, Jr. and Rebecca Miles, as bondsman. (Shelby County, Kentucky. Marriage Book 6, page 1624.)

William and Louisa Johnson Wade were enumerated in Shelby County on 29 June 1860, with their children and his unmarried sister Eliza Wade, who was described as an idiot, living with them in the area of Christiansburg Post Office. He was shown as having real estate valued at $800 and personal property worth $425. All of their children had attended school during the past year: (Federal Census Microcopy 653, Roll 395, Shelby County District 2, dwelling 658, family 614.)

Anderson and Polly Anne Johnson Wade were tabulated next to William and Louisa, with real estate valued at $800 and personal property worth $400. Polly Johnson, mother of Polly Anne Wade and Louisa Wade, lived with Anderson: (dwelling 659,family 615.)

The land on which William Wade and Anderson Wade lived may have descended to them jointly from their father Royal Wade, without benefit of a deed or will. On 20 March 1867, a tract of land owned in partnership by William Wade and Anderson Wade was surveyed and equally divided between Anderson Wade and the widow and heirs of William Wade. The division was made upon a motion by Anderson Wade, Louisa Wade, Rebecca Wade, James W. Wade, Mary Scrogins and John Miles, guardian of James W. Wade, R. W. Wade and Martha E. Wade. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Will Book 31, page 396.) The naming of James W. Wade twice probably was a copying error by the court clerk.

WILLIAM WADE

The death date for William Wade, and other vital statistics for his family, which were not in the Wade Bible, appear in other family records. (Data of Garril L. Kueber, New Orleans, LA, 1987.)

Mary Edna Wade and William Samuel Scrogins were married at the home of Mrs. L. Wade on 25 January 1866. John Miles secured the bond and verified that the 16-year-old girl had parental permission to marry. The groom was 23. The ceremony was performed by T. M. Daniel, Minister of the Gospel, and witnessed by Walter Beckley and John Miles: (Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 9, page3168.)

We, the undersigned, are jointly and severally held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the sum of $100, to be made and levied of our respective goods, chattels, lands, and tenements, and for the use of the Commonwealth, upon the condition that there is no lawful cause to obstruct the marriage of William S. Scrogin and Miss Mary E. Wade. Given under our hands and seals this 20 day of January 1866.

Returned to my office, as Clerk of the Shelby County Court, on the 1st day of Feb. 1866, and recorded by John F. Ballard

This gives the age of Mary Edna, as 18 but, having been born on 21 May 1849, she was only 16 in January 1866.

William Samuel Scrogins, who married Edna Wade, as she was known, was a son of Benjamin Scrogin and Pamela Bohannon of Shelby County. In later years, William usually signed his name Scrogins but his father signed his name Scrogin.

Louisa Scrogin, sister of William Samuel Scrogins, married William Elza Wade, son of Royal Wade, Jr., on 14 October 1852. Thomas M. Daniel also conducted their marriage. (Shelby County, Kentucky, Marriage Book 8, page 2119).

William and Louisa Johnson Wade may be buried in Lebanon Baptist Church Cemetery in northwestern Franklin County, near the Shelby County line. (Recollections of Sciota Young Scroggins to the compiler). Lebanon Church is at the intersection of Lebanon Ridge and Scrabble roads. The cemetery is in two parts. Some of the graves are across the road and others are beside the church, which is where James William Wade, his wife Anna Elizabeth Snook and daughter Jennie are interred: (Church and Family Graveyards of Franklin County, The Kentucky Genealogical Society, Frankfort, 1976.)

Wade, Anne E. 1856-1912

Lebanon Ridge Road runs north from State Route 12, 4 miles east of Bagdad and 3.4 miles west of US421. SR12, which is called Dry Ridge Road in Franklin County, runs west from US421, about 7 miles north of Frankfort. Lebanon Ridge Road also intersects US421, north of the church, between the community of Flag Fork and the Henry County line, 15.6 miles from New Castle.

Jim Young who married Lou Duncan was a son of Jerome Buchanan "Buck" Young and Fannie Allison. Buck Young was a brother of Henry Clay Young who married Lucy Jane Sheets and had Sciota Rebecca "Otie" Young who married William Benjamin "Banie" Scroggins, only son of William Samuel Scroggins and Mary Edna Wade. Banie spelled his name with a double g while his father signed it with the single g.

The children of Jim Young and Lou Duncan and the children of Banie Scroggins and Otie Young were double cousins, being related through both the Wades and the Youngs.

Verna Wade, who married Elmer Duncan, was a daughter of Jesse Jeffrey Wade and Emma D. Facker, who were married on 13 October 1887. Jesse Jeffrey Wade was a son of Obediah B. Wade and Eusebia Neville Cook, and a grandson of Anderson Wade and his first wife America Cheatham. Anderson Wade was the older brother of William Wade.

The tombstone of Marvin J. Hedges is inscribed "PFC US Army, WWII." (Bagdad Cemetery, Shelby County, Kentucky, Kentucky Genealogical Society, Ramona Slattery, Project Chairman, Frankfort, 1996.)
